CORELLIA

CHAPTER ONE

CORE WORLDS

Named for their closeness to the Galactic Core, these worlds boast some of the busiest, wealthiest, and most technologically advanced civilizations in the galaxy. If you're looking for a fast-paced city vacation, there's no better place to go!

CORUSCANT

Nowhere in the galaxy is quite as busy as the galactic capital city-planet. You could spend a lifetime here and never see all of it—even if you live as long as Master Yoda. The sky is always full of ships, and the urban sprawl stretches all around the globe!

Typical weather

Often cloudy, always computer-controlled.

Where to eat

Dex's Diner

Friendly owner Dexter Jettster needs all four of his arms to keep up with orders at this popular eatery. Find it in the industrial Coco Town district, and be sure to try the special, a club sandwich on therm-zapped (or toasted) bread.

Coruscant Police gunship

Who's who on Coruscant

The Jedi Council

Senior Jedi Masters such as Ki-Adi-Mundi once spent much of their time in the Jedi Temple.

The Senate Guard

The blue uniforms of the Senate Guard are a symbol of Coruscant and its galactic government.

TOP 3 MUST SEES!

1. The Galactic Senate

Politics is never boring in the Senate Chamber, where senators from more than 1,000 worlds gather in flying pods!

2. The Jedi Temple

The Jedi lived and trained here for centuries, until the Emperor turned it into his personal palace.

3. The Underworld

Coruscant's lower levels are dark and scary, but you need to see them to get the planet's full story.

What to pack

1. Your best clothes for a trip to the famous Galaxies Opera House.
2. Your worst clothes so you don't stand out in the Underworld.
3. Breathing gear is also essential in the polluted Underworld.

Shock Troopers

The city police are far from friendly. Don't try asking them for directions!

Droids

There are droids to do everything on Coruscant. Medical droids even carry out life-saving operations!

CORELLIA

Corellians are well-known galactic wanderers. It's easy to see why when you visit their homeworld! By day, Corellia's grimy cities are dominated by factories and the pollution they pump out. By night, criminal gangs such as the White Worms rule the streets.

Hmm! Stop for the little green guy, all speeders should!

White Worms' landspeeder

Who's who on Corellia

Han Solo

Han was born on Corellia. He lived as a scumrat, until he escaped the planet to train as a pilot.

Qi'ra

This savvy scumrat worked for the White Worms alongside Han.

Typical weather

Rain and industrial smog.

DOS AND DON'TS ON CORELLIA

Do watch out for scumrats—young pickpockets who work for a crime gang.

Do book your return journey well in advance. There can be long lines at the spaceport.

Don't start talking to any Imperial recruitment officers. You might end up as a mudtrooper!

Don't pet the doglike Corellian hounds—their bite is even worse than their bark!

Imperial Patrol speeder

Getting around

Renting a landspeeder is the best way to see more of Corellia. But be aware that the fast and flashy M-68 model is a popular target for scumrat thieves.

Moloch

This member of the White Worms crime gang really is a giant worm!

Rebolt

Thuggish Rebolt was one of the White Worms' favored goons.

ALDERAAN

Known throughout the galaxy for its beauty, this peaceful world was once at the top of every traveler's to-do list. But set your coordinates for Alderaan today and all you'll find is the space where it used to be, before it was blown up by the Empire!

WELCOME TO THE ALDERAAN SYSTEM

Please fly carefully through our asteroid field

Alderaan reviews

DarkLord66

My favorite thing about Alderaan was when it exploded. I can't give it five stars because of all those times when it wasn't exploding.

Tantive IV

Who's who in the Alderaan system

Leia Organa

Leia grew up as a princess on Alderaan. She left to lead the fight against the Empire and, later, the First Order.

Bail Organa

Bail and his wife Breha, the Queen of Alderaan, adopted Leia when she was a baby, and raised her to rebel.

Typical weather

Alderaan was known for its fine weather, and snow at high altitudes.

What to pack

1. A space suit—if you're planning to get out of your ship.
2. Food and drink—you won't find anywhere to eat here.
3. Tissues—thinking about the end of Alderaan might make you cry!

DOS AND DON'TS IN THE ALDERAAN SYSTEM

Do pay your respects at the asteroid field where Alderaan used to be.

Don't crash your ship into any of the asteroids!

Do locate the nearby star that gave Alderaan its beautiful sunsets.

Don't forget to look out for surviving Alderaanian ships, such as the Tantive IV.

Raymus Antilles

The captain of the Tantive IV was a trusted ally to the Organas.

Cara Dune

Cara's home planet is peace-loving Alderaan.

CHAPTER TWO

INNER AND MID RIM WORLDS

Surrounding the area known as the Core, the Inner and Mid Rims are home to many different species, including the Gungans and the Wookiees. These planets all make good bases from which to explore the wider galaxy.

JAKKU

There's a reason tourists don't go to Jakku, and that reason is sand. If you want sand, there are much nicer places to find it. If you don't want sand, then Jakku has very little to offer you—except for scavengers, out to swipe anything you leave lying around!

LOOK OUT!

THERE'S A LUGGABEAST ABOUT!

What to pack

1. Plenty of snacks—food is hard to come by here!
2. Trashed tech for trading at Niima Outpost.
3. Goggles and boots to keep the sand out of your eyes and socks!

Teedo zatana
tappan-aboo!

Teedo riding
a luggabeast

Who's who on Jakku

Rey

Rey was left on Jakku as a child and grew up here all alone.

Finn

Finn came to Jakku as a stormtrooper, but left it as a free man!

Typical weather

Scorching in the day, but freezing at night.

Getting around

You'll need your own transport to get around on Jakku. Why not build a speeder from spare parts, just like Rey did?

TOP 3 MUST SEES!

1. Starship Graveyard

Go scavenging for souvenirs among the ships that crashed in the desert during the final battle between the Empire and the Rebellion.

2. Niima Outpost

Jakku's spaceport is the first thing you'll see on the planet. You'll want to come back here—so that you can leave!

3. Goazon Badlands

Before she became a galactic hero, Rey lived in a rusting Imperial walker that lay on its side in this part of the desert.

Talk Teedospeak I do not!

Lor San Tekka

This wise old man kept a secret for Luke Skywalker on Jakku.

Teedo

These scavengers travel on luggabeasts, looking for loot in the desert.

NAVIGATING NIIMA

Not much happens on Jakku, but anything that does happens at Niima Outpost, the planet's only spaceport. The name to know around here is Unkar Plutt—a mean trader who sells spaceships and spare parts. He can get you anything you need, but his thugs might steal it back again!

Traveler's tip

Be on the look out for bargains at Niima Outpost. For several years, Unkar Plutt had the Millennium Falcon up for sale here—until Rey and Finn “borrowed” it!

UNATTENDED QUADJUMPERS MAY BE DESTROYED.

Unkar's trading stall

DOS AND DON'TS AT NIIMA OUTPOST

Snap a selfie at Niima Gate!

Do trade junk for food at Unkar's stall.

Do watch your back at all times.

Don't expect to get a good meal.

Don't watch Unkar's back. Or his front. They're both horrible!

Up with Plutt's plots I will not put!

Niima for droids

Mechanical travelers should take extra care on Jakku. Never take your eyes off your owner, and never let anyone take your eyes off you!

TAKODANA

You can really get away from it all on Takodana—that's why smugglers and scoundrels like to hide out here! The forests and lakes are a must for nature-lovers, but the biggest draw is the lively castle of pirate queen Maz Kanata.

Typical weather

Sunny and humid.

Traveler's tip

Maz's castle used to be a Jedi temple. Ask her nicely and she might show you some of its ancient treasures!

The Skywalker lightsaber

Don't miss

THE GIANT
STATUE OF MAZ!

Takodana Tours

Who's who on Takodana

Maz Kanata

Maz has been welcoming guests to her castle for at least a thousand years!

Han Solo

Maz is always happy to see this rebel hero swagger into her castle.

*We didn't miss
MAZ!*

First Order Flights

*I thought

*A lot,
I get that.*

Maz's castle

DOS AND DON'TS AT MAZ'S CASTLE

Do whatever Maz tells you to do!

Don't start any fights. That's always good advice, but here it's a rule.

Do ask Maz about her centuries of travel and adventure.

Don't stay longer than one night—it gets expensive!

What to pack

1. A musical instrument—if you play well, you can stay at the castle for free!
2. A swimsuit for a dip in Nymeve Lake.
3. Credits—nearly every guest at the castle has something to sell!

General Leia

Leia and Han were reunited on Takodana after years apart.

Chewbacca

Maz likes to call Chewie her "boyfriend." He doesn't seem to mind!

NABOO

A trip to the lush and watery world of Naboo is like two vacations in one! Start in the royal city of Theed, where humans spend their days in grand palaces and plazas. Then, dip a toe into the underwater world of the Gungans—but watch out for giant sea beasts!

Phrasebook

Gunganese:

Hello—Hidoe

Great!—Bombad!

*You can't go
wrongo in a tribubble bongo!*

Gungan submarine rides daily

For low-flying aircraft you must watch out!

Naboo
starfighter

Who's who in Naboo

Padmé Amidala

The most famous Queen of Naboo is far friendlier than her formal face-paints make her look!

Jar Jar Binks

This goofy Gungan helped make peace between his people and Naboo's human inhabitants.

Typical weather

Plenty of sunshine with bursts of heavy rain.

TOP 3 MUST SEES!

1. Theed Royal Palace

Wise rulers like Queen Amidala address their people (and have people to dress them) in this beautiful clifftop castle.

2. Otoh Gunga

Every Gungan in this underwater city stays warm and dry, thanks to its big, bubble-shaped force fields.

3. Festival of Light

This colorful celebration of Naboo has been held once a year for more than 800 years!

What to pack

1. Fish food—to make sure you don't become fish food!
2. Bring your best clothes for a walk through fashionable Theed.
3. Bring your best boots for a hike through the humid swamps!

Getting around

When battle droids attacked this world, they used Armored Assault Tanks. You'll get a warmer welcome in a Flash Speeder!

Roos Tarpals

Like all Gungans, Roos is an amphibian, so is happy living on land or underwater.

Sheev Palpatine

Believe it or not, the evil Emperor was born on Naboo!

KASHYYYK

The home of the Wookiees is a woodland paradise, but even paradise has its problems! Over the years, Kashyyyk has suffered from a droid invasion and a long period of Imperial rule. It's best to find a Wookiee companion for your travels here.

DROID GUNSHIPS START FOREST FIRES!

Who's who on Kashyyyk

Chewbacca

Han Solo's best friend and Rey's copilot knows every part of his planet—if only he did tours!

Tarfful

This brave warrior led the fight against an invading droid army during the Clone Wars.

Typical weather

Warm with rainy seasons.

Phrasebook

Shyriiwook:

Yes—Mmmmmrrrrrr!

No—Rwww!

Wookiee
gunship

TOP 3 MUST SEES!

1. Treetop cities

Wookiee settlements such as the capital city, Kachirho, are built into the sides and tops of giant wroshyr trees.

2. The Origin Tree

Kashyyyk has many huge trees, but few can compete with this one, which rises above the clouds.

3. Woodland wildlife

Be on the lookout for can-cell bugs, which are said to bring good luck, and flame beetles that glow and sometimes explode!

What to pack

1. A hairbrush—it's an honor to be asked to comb a Wookiee.
2. A translator unit—there are more than 150 words for wood!
3. Tweezers—you might need to remove a splinter or two ...

Commander Gree

Clone trooper Gree fought alongside Yoda and Tarfful at the Battle of Kashyyyk.

Luminara Unduli

This Jedi Master fell in battle while defending Kashyyyk against the droid army.

PASAANA

Pasaana is a party planet—but only once every 42 years! Be sure to time your visit around the Festival of the Ancestors, when the usually quiet Forbidden Valley erupts in celebration of the past and future. Come here at any other time and all you'll find is dust farms!

What to pack

1. A colorful kite to fly at the festival.
2. Colorful robes to wear at the festival.
3. A comfy chair to relax in for the day after the festival.

Who's who on Pasaana

Lando Calrissian

Rebel hero Lando went to Pasaana to track down Ochi. He wanted to find the Sith relic hunter to stop the First Order's dangerous plans.

D-O

This little droid was left all alone on Pasaana for many years, until he made a new droid friend in BB-8.

Knights of Ren

When the villainous Knights of Ren came to Pasaana, they missed the memo about colorful clothes!

holidays, too!*

*Holidays once
every 42 years.

Typical weather

Dry with occasional dust storms.

Around here somewhere, that festival is!

DOS AND DON'TS ON PASAANA

Do accept the flower necklaces offered by the planet's Aki-Aki people.

Don't eat too much of their famous candy!

Do join in with the joyful crowd dances.

Don't dance your way into the quicksand fields!

Getting around

Low-flying skimmers and treaded vehicles are the best way to keep from sinking in the sand on Pasaana. The First Order used treadspeeder bikes when they came here.

JEDHA

For many years, Jedha was the place to go to find out about the Force and the history of the Jedi. But when the first Death Star destroyed Jedha City, this special place was lost forever. Now there is nothing left to see, but the Force is still strong here!

Jedha City

Passed the Death Star's first superlaser test

DOS AND DON'TS ON JEDHA

Do look for kyber crystals, which are used to make lightsabers.

Don't look for the great Kyber Temple—it isn't there anymore.

Do try to feel the Force energies that made this place special to the Jedi.

Don't try too hard—not everyone can sense it!

Ruined this place the Empire did!

Who's who on Jedha

Bodhi Rook

Jedha-born Bodhi was an Imperial pilot before he joined the Rebellion.

Baze Malbus

Baze is one of the Guardians of the Whills, pledged to defend the Kyber Temple against attackers.

Jedha City reviews

LookWhosTarkin

Great for target practice. Things have really blown up since I first came here.

CaptainCassian

Such a shame this place is gone now. My droid, K-2SO, really loved it.

K-2SO

Cassian made me come here. I hated every second of it.

Hologram of Imperial Assault Hovortank on Jedha

Typical weather

Permanent winter, but no snow.

Chirrut Îmwe

Baze's best friend is a fellow Guardian, who relies on the Force to guide him through life as a warrior monk.

Jyn Erso

This rebel hero came to Jedha to find the secrets of the Death Star.

VANDOR

Winter sports fans will love Vandor's snow-covered slopes and hiking trails, but hardly anyone chooses to make a home here. Away from the few small settlements, the only signs of life you'll see are farmers tending to shaggy kod'yok cattle, and the occasional high-speed cargo train snaking between the peaks.

What to pack

1. Winter wear—even stormtroopers wear fur coats here.
2. Goggles to keep the stinging cold out of your eyes.
3. Mountaineering gear—or a jet pack!

Get off our train!

Hrmph!

Imperial cargo train

Who's who on Vandor

Lando Calrissian

Lando was playing cards at the Lodge saloon when he first met Han Solo. He didn't think much of the scruffy pilot.

Tobias Beckett

Career criminal Beckett came to Vandor to hijack an Imperial cargo train.

DOS AND DON'TS ON VANDOR

Do visit the Lodge saloon in Fort Ypso village.

Don't go to the droid-fighting arena. Support droid rights!

Do enjoy a kod'yok ride across the snow-capped mountains.

Don't try to hitch a ride on an Imperial cargo train!

Getting around

Sadly, the train network built by the Empire is not for public use. However, Cloud-Rider pirates have proved that you can match the railroad's speed and route by flying repulsorlift swoop bikes.

Typical weather

Freezing cold. Brrr!

Enfys Nest

Nest and her Cloud-Rider pirates came to Vandor to hijack Beckett's hijack!

Rio Durant

This four-armed Ardennian pilot was part of Beckett's gang.

CHAPTER THREE

OUTER RIM WORLDS

Planets are few and far between on the vast outer edge of the galaxy. Some are home to isolated cultures, while others have just one or two dwellers—or can't even be lived on! Come here when you want to get away from it all.

CLOUD CITY

This fabulous flying city was built for gas mining, but its upper levels are now filled with lively stores, restaurants, and hotels. They aren't cheap, so don't come here unless you have credits to spare. But concentrate on saving now, and you could have your head in the clouds in no time at all!

Typical weather

Windy but dry—the rain falls away from the city!

TOP 3 MUST SEES!

1. Bespin sunsets

Cloud City hangs in the sky above the gas planet Bespin. Don't miss the best views of Bespin as its sun goes down.

2. Luxurious hotels

Kick back at one of the magnificent hotels. You may even spot some rich and famous faces from across the galaxy!

3. Administrator's Palace

Located at the very top of Cloud City, this lavish home once belonged to the rebel hero Lando Calrissian!

Cloud City

Who's who in Cloud City

Lando Calrissian

Lando was a Baron of Cloud City before he joined the Rebel Alliance. He was in charge of all that went on there—legal or otherwise!

Lobot

This Bespin native has computer implants. These allow him to keep Cloud City's systems running with his thoughts alone.

Boba Fett

Bounty hunter Boba left Cloud City with a unique souvenir—Han Solo frozen in a block of carbonite!

Getting around

No trip to Bespin is complete without renting a twin-pod cloud car. Use it to shuttle between the different levels of the planet's atmosphere.

Red Cloud

A LONGER STAY IN CLOUD CITY

Most travelers choose to visit Cloud City for the glamour of its upper levels, but some like to see its industrial lower levels, too. Hardworking Ugnights mine Tibanna gas here. They prepare it for sale in carbon-freezing chambers, which are well worth a tour.

And here is where I push the button.

DOS AND DON'TS ON THE LOWER LEVELS

Do use the handrails—there are some big drops!

Don't get distracted—you could easily lose a hand here.

Do ask the Ugnights about the carbon freezing process.

Don't volunteer to take part in a demonstration!

UGNAUGHTS!

What to pack

1. A landing permit to park your ship in the city.
2. A fashionable cape to wear on the upper levels.
3. An Ugnaught phrasebook to get by on the lower levels.

Carbon-freezing chamber reviews

DarkLord66

I had Han Solo frozen in carbonite here, and found all the staff to be friendly and helpful. They didn't even mind when my son caused a scene in the chamber!

HanTheMan

If you have to be frozen in carbonite, I can't think of a better place to do it than Cloud City. They let me pull a funny face and everything!

PigsMightFly

Thanks for the positive comments! Your feedback is important to us Ugnaughts, and helps us provide service with a smile.

HOTH

When the Empire came to freezing Hoth, they didn't just bring snowshoes—they brought huge walkers called AT-ATs! Travel here today for the winter sports, and you'll have to ski between the walkers they left behind. These metal monsters may look scary, but they actually make a good obstacle course!

Typical weather

Very cold, with frequent snowstorms.

What to pack

1. Your biggest, warmest coat.
2. Skis, a snowboard, or a sled.
3. A portable heater—or lots of extra-thick socks!

AT-AT walker

Who's who on Hoth

General Veers

This Imperial officer led the AT-AT assault on the rebels when they went into hiding on Hoth.

AT-AT drivers

These soldiers command the gigantic AT-AT (All Terrain Armored Transport) walkers.

DOS AND DON'TS ON HOTH

Do take a ride on one of the friendly, furry tauntauns.

Do make the most of the snow during the day.

Don't stay out at night—you'll literally be frozen stiff!

Don't wander into the path of a wampa. They are also furry, but they are very unfriendly!

*Hot on Hoth
it is not!*

Beeeeeeeeeeep!

Imperial snowtroopers

These cold-climate specialists have central heating built into their body armor!

Probe droids

The Empire sent lots of these droids to Hoth on a mission to find a rebel base.

EXPLORING ECHO BASE

The only sign of civilization on Hoth is a rebel base in the ice. The massive structure has impressive defenses, huge starship hangars, and an advanced medical center. But the rebels only got to use it for a few weeks, before the Empire arrived and turned up the heat!

WARNING!
ICY FLOORS!

(OH, AND WAMPAS)

Hello!

TOP 3 MUST SEES!

1. Lookout towers

Climb the sentry points around Echo Base to view the frozen scene where the Battle of Hoth took place.

2. Blast doors

Echo Base's impressive double doors were designed to keep the heat in and the Empire out!

3. Medical center

This is where Luke Skywalker recovered in a healing bacta tank after he was captured by a wampa.

Get the bacta factor!

Relax and recuperate in

Hello!

Echo Base reviews

HanTheMan

Sure it's cold, but get a big hood like mine and you'll feel as warm as a Wookiee!

Toryn_Farr

I was a technician at Echo Base. To read my review of it, visit my blog, "Farr Far Away"!

Hoth for droids

Be careful not to let your joints freeze on this ice planet. Make time for a soothing oil bath if you can.

Getting around

If you can't get the hang of tauntaun riding (or you just don't like the smell), why not travel by snowspeeder? The rebels were forced to leave these cool craft behind when they abandoned Echo Base.

ENDOR

When travelers talk about Endor, they usually mean the Forest Moon of Endor rather than the planet of the same name. Make sure you head for the Forest Moon if you're hoping to see some Ewoks. Treat these cuddly-looking creatures with respect and they will do the same to you!

Phrasebook

Ewokese:

Hello—Yaa-yaah!

Hooray—Yub nub!

Getting around

Speeder bikes are the quickest way to get around the forest. Just make sure that you are able to dodge the massive tree trunks!

Typical weather

Mild by day,
cold at night.

Who's who on Endor

Wicket W. Warrick

This young Ewok knows the woods like the back of his paw. If you can find him, he's the ideal guide to Endor!

Chief Chirpa

Consider it an honor if you get to meet the wise old chief of Bright Tree Village.

Don't miss Threepio Fest!

Traveler's tip

Don't leave this system without dipping a toe into Kef Bir—the Ocean Moon of Endor! A friendly tribe of former stormtroopers lives here, led by the freedom fighter Jannah.

CRAIT

Crait is so unloved that it doesn't even feature on the latest star charts. This makes it perfect for getting off the familiar tourist track! To find it, you'll need to ask directions from an old rebel who remembers hiding in the abandoned mines here, or an even older miner!

What to pack

1. Sunglasses to combat the glare of the sun on the salt flats.
2. Food—there's lots of salt, but nothing to put it on!
3. Drinks—all the water here is salted, too.

TOP 3 MUST SEES!

1. Crait's true colors

Kick away its ghostly white salt crust and Crait is exposed as a vivid red crystal world!

2. Glass animals

Sparkling crystal-covered fur makes the foxlike vulptex one of Crait's most unusual creatures.

3. Secret base

An abandoned crystal mine forms the basis of an old rebel hideout that was also used by the Resistance.

TATOOINE

Looking to catch some sun? Then come to Tatooine—it has two of them! The planet is mostly desert, which might sound a little dry, but some of the most important events in the galaxy have revolved around this place. That makes it a key destination on cosmic history tours!

Getting around

What to pack

1. Goggles and scarves to protect from sandstorms.
2. Water—it is very hard to come by!
3. Spare parts to trade with the local Jawas.

Luke Skywalker

Years after Anakin left the planet, Luke was raised here by his Uncle Owen and Aunt Beru.

Sandtroopers

These specialized stormtroopers combed the desert for rebel droids during the Imperial era.

INTO MOS EISLEY

When you're done with the desert, head next to Tatooine's most famous town. Mos Eisley is a hive of fun, but also plenty of villainy. Simply steer clear of anyone with a blaster in their hand or a bounty on their head, and you will find the Mos Eisley you're looking for!

Where to eat

Chalmun's Spaceport Cantina

If you're looking for lively music and even livelier locals, Mos Eisley's main eating and drinking spot is the only place to be. The cantina is named for its Wookiee owner, but the day-to-day boss is Tatooine-born Wuher. Make friends with him and you'll always be welcome here!

DUNE SEA SAFARI

Don't bring any bug repellent to this desert world—the intelligent insects that live here really won't like it! Geonosis is famous as the planet where the Clone Wars started, and where the Empire's first Death Star was built. For these reasons and more, nobody likes the place very much!

DOS AND DON'TS ON GEONOSIS

Do marvel at the towering hives where the Geonosians live and work.

Don't pour hot water into their hives. They positively hate that.

MUSTAFAR

The dark side of the Force is strong on Mustafar, so Sith Lords love to take their vacations here. Darth Vader built himself a home on the planet, surrounded by fiery lava fields. Very few people ever come to visit it—and you would do well to stay away as well!

TOP 3 MUST SEES!

1. Vader's fortress

If you must see Mustafar, the main attraction is this terrifying tower. Just don't try to go inside!

2. Lava mines

Valuable minerals can be extracted from the planet's lava, but it's hot and horrible work.

SCARIF

Scarif was an unspoiled beach paradise—until the Empire built a vault there to hide their secrets! They sealed the planet off with a deflector shield and filled it with sand-colored shoretroopers. A rebel strike destroyed the shield, but you'll still see Imperial landing pads on some of the best sunbathing spots ...

OK, you can play volleyball here! Just put me down!

Hrm!

DOS AND DON'TS ON SCARIF

Do stretch out on the sand beneath an areca nut palm tree.

Do remember the brave rebels who came here to steal the Death Star plans.

Don't accidentally stretch out on a sand-colored shoretrooper!

DAGOBAB

Some planets are always swamped with tourists. Others are just swamped with swamps. Dagobah is one of the latter, where it is hard to tell where the land ends and the bogs begin. Only Yoda has ever made a home here, after he learned of its connection to the Force.

YODA'S SPECIALS

*So peaceful,
it is. No jabber,
just hut!*

Typical weather

Thick fog and rainstorms.

Getting around

It really helps to be a Force user here. You can get around by leaping from bog to bog, and retrieve your ship when it inevitably sinks into the swamp. Luke's X-wing would have been lost forever without Yoda's Jedi powers!

Who's who on Dagobah

Yoda

After the Clone Wars, Yoda hid himself away on Dagobah, waiting for Luke or Leia to seek out his wisdom.

Luke Skywalker

A message from Obi-Wan Kenobi led Luke to Dagobah, where Yoda trained him in the ways of the Force.

Poor Artoo was almost eaten by a dragonsnake when he came to Dagobah with Luke!

LOTHAL

Lothal suffered badly under Imperial rule when it became a heavily polluted factory world. But since the planet was freed by daring rebels, it has recovered its former glory. Lush grasslands have regrown across most of the planet, while the one major city (simply called Capital City) is a gleaming hub of activity.

Typical weather
